Testimonials

"Within just a few sessions, Rachel helped me to get clear on what's important and how to proceed. She helped me cut through mental clutter and self doubt so that I can identify my next steps to keep me moving towards making the changes I set out to do. Rachel has a knack for working with creative people like me. She is a gem."

"Since coaching, I'm definitely more confident in the way approach things, embracing the fear and going for it. I'm now I'm looking at the bigger picture and doing things now that will benefit me in the long run. I no longer believe that I have to act small."

"When I began working with Rachel, I was drowning in imposter syndrome ... With Rachel's support, I learned to tame many of my insecurities ... and found the confidence to embark on a new life venture that I know is going to fill my cup. "

"Rachel is the best business coach I've had the opportunity to work with. She is brilliant when it comes to strategy, technology, keeping things simple and holding women accountable. I love that she coaches beyond the business, also focusing on personal life coaching and brings the elements of spirituality and astrology into her offerings."
